You must respond to the above charges in writing to the Service address provided on the other side of this form within 10 calendar days of service of this notice (or 13 calendar days if service is by mail). The Service must RECEIVE your response within that time period.

In your response you may: request, for good cause, an extension of time; rebut the charges stated above (with supporting evidence); request an opportunity to review the government's evidence; admit deportability; designate the country to which you choose to be removed in the event that a final order of removal is issued (which designation the Service will honor only to the extent permitted under section 241 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1231); and/or, if you fear persecution in any specific country or countries on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion or, if you fear torture in any specific country or countries, you may request withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the Act or withholding/deferral of removal under the Convention Against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman, or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (Convention Against Torture). A grant of withholding or deferral of removal would prohibit your return to a country or countries where you would be persecuted or tortured, but would not prevent your removal to a safe country.

You may seek judicial review of any final administrative order by filing a petition for review within 30 calendar days after the date such final administrative order is issued, or you may waive such appeal by stating, in writing, your desire not to appeal.
